CHENG Chen was born in 1998 in Taoyuan City, Taiwan. From a young age, he entered music classes to receive musical education, specializing in cello and vocal music as minors. He pursued his undergraduate studies at the National Taipei University of the Arts in Taiwan, under the guidance of Professor Mei-Ling Chien. Currently, he is enrolled in the Master's program in Piano at the Universität Mozarteum Salzburg in Austria, studying under Professor Rolf Plagge. During his enrollment, he actively participated in various chamber music concerts and served as an accompanist for vocal, bassoon, violin, and other instrument concerts, as well as activities related to entrance and graduation examinations.
